

Now Hiring: Veterinarian Wanted

At the Belle Plaine Animal Hospital, we are dedicated to the relationship between pets and their people. Our mission is to welcome and respect all those we serve and to address the whole patient/client relationship while delivering the best possible care. We are looking for a veterinarian of any experience level who embodies these values to join our two-doctor practice.

Our entire team, including CVTs, assistants, practice manager, and front desk staff are very passionate about what they do. We have a positive, close-knit, and drama-free group dynamic with team members of 10-15 years welcoming and supporting new members to our work family as our practice grows. We are open to diverse healing modalities. We want to provide a space for new doctors to advance their surgical, dental, and ultrasound skills, develop their own unique style of medicine, and grow with our practice.

Full and part-time positions available.
